RAID BY MGEU

To all members:

You will be seeing notices from the Manitoba Labour Board posted in workplaces and possibly coming on WSD email accounts. This is about a RAID by MGEU. A raid means that MGEU is trying to take over as your union.

According to the posted notice, you have the right to file an "Objection" with the Labour Board if you were subjected to fraud, intimidation, coercion or threats by someone trying to get support for the MGEU raid. You have the right to file an objection by Monday June 14.

WANTE will be fighting this raid attempt. In the coming week, you will likely see more information from the Labour Board about a vote.

We will keep you posted on developments about this raid attempt, and bargaining developments. Please contact the WANTE office if you have any questions about the raid attempt or other issues.
