

WANTE RATIFICATION MEETING: ELECTRONIC VOTING FAQ

Please post all pages

Do I need to attend the ratification meeting to be able to vote?

- No, you do not need to attend the ratification meeting in order to cast your ballot.
- Ballots will be emailed to the email address that has been previously provided to the W.A.N.T.E. office after the ratification meeting has concluded.

Is my email on the list?

- All email addresses received by the deadline of February 15th had been updated in our database and were included on the voter list sent to Electionbuddy. March 10th was the deadline given to us by Electionbuddy for any updates to the master list.
- If you submitted your email address after March 10th, you will need to come to the W.A.N.T.E. office (111-1555 St. James Street) to vote on Friday March 18th between 9 am and 7 pm. Please note: the outside doors lock at 5:00 pm. We will have Collective Bargaining committee members watching at Door 6 for anyone who arrives after 5:00 pm.
- You will need to bring your school ID badge and a printout of a paystub or your assignment that shows that you are permanent or on a term.

When will the vote open?

- Thursday, March 17th, at 9:00 pm.

Who can vote?

- All permanent and term members are able to vote. This includes those individuals that are on various leaves.
- Substitutes are not permitted to vote.

When will the vote close?

- Sunday, March 20th, at 11:59 pm.

When will the results be posted?

- Monday, March 21st on the Website (www.wante.org), Facebook at facebook.com/WANTEWpg, Twitter @WANTEwpg and via email.

How do I know my vote has been submitted?

- You will receive a confirmation email that states the date & time that you voted and a confirmation code that you can then use after the results are posted to confirm your vote was tabulated.
